CALLAWAY VINEYARD & WINERY
CANDLELIGHT DINNER

November 17, 2008 (Temecula, Southern California Wine Country) - A holiday tradition at Callaway Vineyard & Winery, the annual Candlelight Dinner features a sparkling wine and hors d'oeuvres reception followed by a four-course gourmet dinner prepared by Meritage at Callaway's Executive Chef, Mike Henry. Each course will be perfectly paired with a Winemaker's Reserve Callaway wine.

Dinner Menu features: Winter Greens, Ricotta Salata, Candied Beets, Toasted Pine Nuts and a Blood Orange Vinaigrette paired with Callaway 2005 Winemaker's Reserve Chardonnay; Bacon Wrapped Scallop with a Green Olive Puree and Pickled Cauliflower paired with Callaway 2003 Winemaker's Reserve Sangiovese; Braised Short Rib of Beef with Roasted Shallots, Red Wine Jus and Whipped Gorgonzola Potato paired with Callaway 2005 Winemaker's Reserve Cabernet Merlot; Roasted Apple, Almond and Brie Tart with Pink Peppercorn Caramel and Crème Anglaise paired with Callaway Non-Vintage Winemaker's Reserve A.K.A. Port.

"The Candlelight Dinner is always a festive and memorable event. It is such a sight to see the winery glisten and sparkle in all its holiday splendor. Our Barrel Room will be filled with live holiday music, candlelit barrels and the aroma of delicious cuisine, the perfect combination to toast the season," says Krista Chaich, Events Manager.

Saturday, December 6th from 6:30-9:30pm. $100 per person, plus tax and service charge. Now accepting reservations online at www.callawaywinery.com or by calling 951-676-4001.

Callaway Vineyard & Winery, privately owned by the Lin family of San Diego, was originally founded by Ely Callaway in 1969. The time honored, Callaway tradition continues in creating wines that retain their natural fruit flavors and aromas and that are fruit forward and food friendly. Callaway Vineyard & Winery wines are sold only at the winery.
